A STOCKING

Christmas Day, December 25, is probably the most popular holiday in England. It is a family holiday. Traditionally all relatives and friends give each other presents. On the eve of Christmas children hang their stockings, so that Santa Claus could put presents into them.

Happy New Year!

The first of January, New Year's Day, is a big holiday in England. People celebrate New Year's Eve in every family. Friends usually come on that day. They have a good dinner. When the largest clock of London — Big Ben — begins to strike twelve, the people in the square join their hands and sing. They also wish a Happy New Year to each other.

Christmas Traditions in England

Christmas Tree

The first Christmas Trees came to England in the 1830s. Ever since then, Christmas Trees have been a part of a Christmas.

I Have got a ...

Christmas song

*Oh, Christmas tree,
Oh, Christmas tree,
Your leaves are never changing!
Oh, Christmas tree,
Oh, Christmas tree,
Your leaves are never changing!
They are all green when summer's here,
They are all green when winter's near.
Oh, Christmas tree,
Oh, Christmas tree,
Your leaves are never changing!*

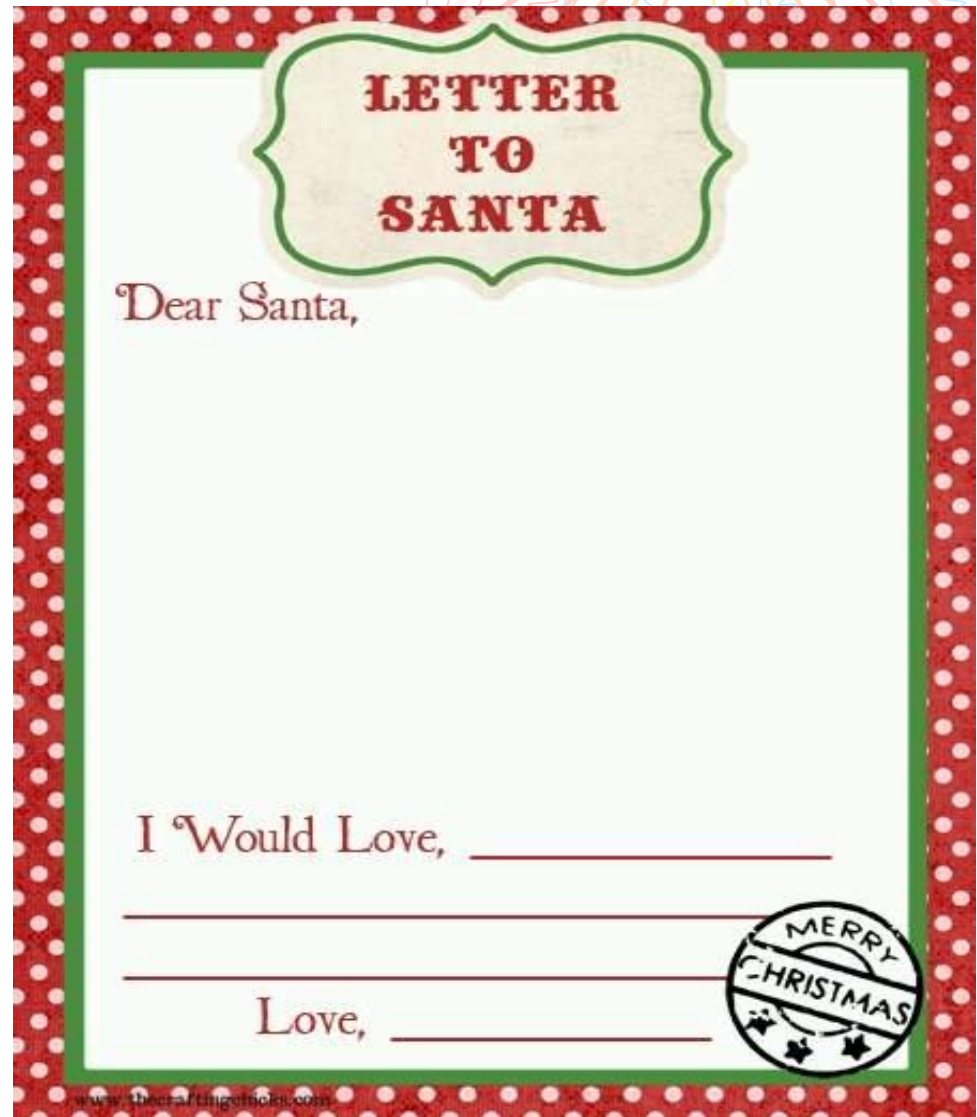

Christmas song

*Oh, Christmas tree,
Oh, Christmas tree,
Your leaves are never changing!
Oh, Christmas tree,
Oh, Christmas tree,
Your leaves are never changing!
They are all green when summer's here,
They are all green when winter's near.
Oh, Christmas tree,
Oh, Christmas tree,
Your leaves are never changing!*
